Tudor Taster Walks
Join a Tudor Taster walk to learn about life - and death - in 16th century Amersham - food and drink, clothing, health, and the Lollard martyrs. These start from St Mary's Church porch, taking about 1 hour (compared with the usual monthly walk up to two and a quarter hours) with guides in costume to the Martyrs Memorial and looping back to St Mary's. These will leave St Mary's Church at 12noon and 2pm. No charge, but donations to the Museum welcome.

Amersham Museum
Open 12pm– 4.30pm
Free Admission

Discover the town's history at Amersham Museum. Find out more about Tudor history from cast members from the Amersham Martyrs Community Play in costume, with music and dance, Mummers Play, and storytelling outside the Museum. Inside, explore our Tudor Room, dress up or search for healing herbs in our garden, where you can find out more from wise woman Mother Savory.
